Statement

Due to updated provisions and standards, type approval certificate 01 202 322/B-120008-T was issued by TÜV Rheinland in 2012-04-20, containing no change of scope or type but an updated reference to the current version of the Transportable Pressure Equipment Directive (TPED) 2010/35/EC and to the ADR.

We hereby declare that the composite LPG cylinders produced in accordance with type approval certificate no 01 202 322/B-120008-T issued by TÜV Rheinland, are identical to cylinders produced in accordance with former type approval certificate 0036-018-02 rev. 7 issued by TÜV Süd in 2009-04-28.

We can confirm that the composite cylinder produced under the scope of the type approval certificate 01 202 322/B-120008-T have a retest period of 10 years.
